

Since Indiana had the No Call List, life as a retired pweson has been enjoyable. Before that, I had 10 plus calls per day from a commercial or vendor source. It was very annoying and I had to get caller ID to keep from having to loose my patients. O wou;d prefer that the No-Call List be retained to help us retired folks from running to the phone needlessly. Thank You.

Robert Martin